

BIOGRAPHY

Mr Bill Ryan

Director, Staff Services

Curtin University of Technology

Bill Ryan took up his current position in April 2007. Prior to that date, Bill was working at QUT in a variety of operational and strategic roles in Human Resources, including Associate Director, HR Client Services and Associate Director, HR Strategic Services.

Bill is a qualified organisational psychologist and has worked extensively across the tertiary education sector in a number of projects relating to leadership development and HR benchmarking. Bill has held executive member appointments with the Australian Psychological Society (College of Organisational Psychologists), Australian Human Resource Institute (AHRI) and the Association for Tertiary Education Management (ATEM).

Bill's interests include cultural and organisational change, change management, organisational development and leadership development. He has been heavily involved in implementing organisational responses to a survey of staff satisfaction at Curtin and in the establishment of the University's new Organisational Development Unit.

Bill has a Master of Business (Management) from QUT and an Honours degree in Psychology and a Bachelor of Science from University of Queensland.
